Fråga-svar

Azerbajdzjan. Oppositionell politisk verksamhet. Azerbaijan Democratic Party (ADP)

Fråga

Finns uppdaterad information om situationen för medlemmar i Azerbaijan Democratic Party (ADP)? Vad riskerar medlemmar av detta parti för reaktioner från myndigheterna?

Svar

Contact, Rasul Mursalov and Ilgar Rzayev are Declared "Prisoners of Eurovision", 2013-02-27:

”Youth activist of Democratic Party (ADP) Rasul Mursalov was arrested for political reasons. This was announced at today’s press conference of the committee to protect the rights of Mursalova. Mursalov actively participated in the protests of the opposition in Baku last spring. On July 18, he was arrested in the village of Chelchyu in Balakan region, where he stayed in his grandfather’s house.”

Turan Information Agency rapporterar om ungdomsaktivister, medlemmar i Azerbaijan Democratic Party som blivit trakasserade av brottsbekämpande myndigheter. Här omnämns aktivisterna Osman Akhmedov och Azar Sadikhov.

Channel 4 news, Millions tune in to Eurovision despite opposition protests, 2012-05-26:

"Shakha Gadjeva of the Azerbaijan Democratic Party, who is taking part in a hunger strike that began 12 days ago, said she was recently detained during an opposition rally. She showed bruising on her arms which she said were caused by police."

Demotix, The Network for Freelance Photojournalists, Police set new record for number of detained protesters, 2012-02-10:

"Note that this is the second event conducted by the opposition after the Parliament repeatedly increased fines for participating in unauthorized demonstrations. However, it does not frighten the opposition."

Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty, Activists Detained In Baku Ahead Of Opposition Rally, 2011-03-31:

“Those detained today on their way to school or work include members of the opposition Azerbaijan Popular Front Party (APFP), the Azerbaijan Democratic Party (ADP), and the Classical Azerbaijan Popular Front Party.“

Wordpress, whatwaswritten, Mass arrests ahead of 2 April protest [updated], 2011-03-31:

“Mass arrests seem to have started ahead of 2 April opposition protest, as they did before 11 and 12 March protests. This started when two days ago an Azerbaijan Democratic Party member was arrested, but has picked up today when several activists were arrested, some already sentenced to 5 or 10 days in prison”
