Svar

Offer för konflikten

Caucasian Knot, som är en nyhetssida med fokus på MR-frågor i Kaukasus, tar fram statistik på offer och publicerar sammanställningar på attacker som skett i bland annat Tjetjenien. Det bör noteras att alla uppgifter är uppskattningar gjorda utifrån tillgängliga källor. Enligt den statistiken dog 82 personer och 92 skadades till följd av konflikten under 2012 i Tjetjenien. Av dessa var 38 av de döda och en av de skadade rebeller. Av polis/militärer dog 43 personer och 84 skadades. En civil person dog och sju skadades. Officiella källor anger antalet döda till 42 rebeller och 54 poliser (varav 22 poliser dog i eldstrider) (Caucasian Knot, 2013-01-16).

För 2013 var siffrorna 62 dödade och 39 skadade till följd av konflikten, varav en civil, 18 poliser/militärer och 20 rebeller utgjorde de dödade och 4 civila och 58 poliser/militärer/rebeller de skadade (Caucasian Knot, 2014-01-27).

2014 dog enligt Caucasian Knots uppskattningar 52 och 117 personer skadades till följd av den väpnade konflikten. Av dessa dödade var 2 civila, 26 poliser/militärer och 24 rebeller. Av de skadade var en rebell och övriga poliser eller militärer (Caucasian Knot, 2015-01-31).

Attacker 2012

Jamestown Foundation har sammanfattat antal dödsfall, konfiskerade vapenförråd, bombningar och kidnappningar i Tjetjenien under 2012. Jamestown Foundation (2013-01-11):

Meanwhile, 28 militants and 42 service men were killed last year, and 72 servicemen were injured in the violence, meaning that the government forces' losses were almost three times greater than the rebels' losses. The government also claimed that 25 rebel arms caches were captured during 2012. There were two suicide bomb attacks and eight ordinary bombings targeting servicemen in various parts of Chechnya in 2012. Nine people were kidnapped or disappeared in the republic in 2012 (<http://astrakhan.kavkaz-uzel.ru/articles/155726/>).

The government forces suffered the majority of their losses in Chechnya last year in open armed clashes with the militants. There were only eight bomb attacks for the entire year. The two suicide bombings killed only four servicemen and injured two others.
